Coke on Cleveland.

He Hits Hard—Read and Reflect

[From a Recent Speech in the Senate.]

The executive department of the government in all its branches from Hayes' administration to Harrison's including Cleveland's, has been most thoroughly and completely under the control and influence and dictation of the great capitalistic combination which has just scored another victory against the people on the silver issue. All these administrations made bitter, savage war on silver, and left no means untried to discredit and break it down and debase it. No body knew how Mr. Cleveland stood on the silver question until after he was elected, and he commenced to war on it before his inauguration in a letter addressed to a committee of members of the house of representatives (100 of them) who were deputed to confer with him on the subject.

All of these administrations, from the president down to the lowest reporting official of the treasury department, in messages and reports, denounced silver coinage, urged its abandonment, denounced the $346,000,000 of legal tender notes as a debt of the government which should be paid and the notes taken out of circulation, retired and canceled, although not a cent of interest runs on them; advising the country that gold and national bank notes should be our only circulating medium, with subsidary silver coin for purposes of exchange. This is the feast to which our people were invited in response to their oft-repeated demand for free silver coinage, for a perpetuation of the legal tender note issue, and such other increase of circulation as could be made in view of the money famine under which they were suffering.

No bolder or more audacious defiance of the popular will has ever occurred in the history of any government, whether republican or monarchical, than for nearly fifteen years has marked the course of the executive department of this government in its dealings with the silver question. The power of the British American syndicate of bankers and bondholders, which in 1873 accomplished the demonetization of silver, and since that time has fought its restoration with all its tremendous resources, has proved stronger than the people. Secure in the re-nomination of President Harrison by the republican party and of his hostility to the free coinage of silver, if he should per chance be re-elected, this combination is now giving its undivided attention to placing at the head of the democratic ticket a name which, like that of president Harrison's, is backed by a record which of itself is a guarantee that free silver coinage will be an impossibility if he should become president.

All the powers and resources of this great combination are being strained to their utmost tension for the accomplishment of this great purpose. Democrat, mugwump and republican in this combination meet and co-operate with the utmost heartiness on common ground for the attainment of this end. It would seem that republicans ought to be content with dictating the nomination of their own party; and when they insist on participating in the selection of a democratic candidate that democrats should remember that the rule is good in politics as in war, that what their adversaries desire them to do is exactly what they should not do.

With the moral force inherent in the presidential office, the veto power and that which comes from executive patronage, all secured against free coinage of silver, whether the president to be elected in November next be democratic or republican, the work commenced in the demonitization of silver in 1873 will be secure at least for four years more from the 4th of March next. This accomplished, the victory of the banking and bondholding syndicate of Europe and America will have been won, and these underground workers and manipulators of our politics will be content, with their grip, tightened on the throats of the agricultural people of the country, to rest from their political labors utterly indifferent as to whether a democrat or republican president is elected to give to each party a liberal campaign fund, and to retire to Europe and enjoy their vacation.

IS PATTISON, THE JEFFERSONIAN GOVERNOR OF PENN'S STATE?

He Reads His Riot Act—You are Subordinate to the Civil Authority, Not Its Boss—So Says Pattison.

HOMESTEAD, Penn, July 22.—The Pennsylvania militia were to-night taught their proper place. It was a stern lesson, administered by Governor Pattison personally. After the governor's suggestion a body of police officers in the persons of deputies of the sheriffs were this evening placed throughout the borough of Homestead to supplant the unlimited military control that has been gradually established. Soldiers are now to aid the civil authorities and not be its superior. A street procession, headed by the town council, in honor of the chief magistrate of the borough, is not to be dispersed. The sheriff of the county or his representatives are to be the ones to say when the danger point has been reached by assemblages of citizens, men in uniforms with guns in their hands being no longer to constitute themselves at will, judge, jury and executioners.

The deputy sheriffs installed this evening, number sixteen in all, and in sheriff McCleary's absence are directed by chief deputy Brady, who is authorized to call in the assistence of the militia to the fullest extent to preserve order and maintain peace. Deputies on arrival from Pittsburg were introduced to the militia officers on guard duty throughout the town by a major from Gen. Snowden's headquarters who had been assigned the task of introducing by provost marshal Col. Greene. The guards, both officers and men, were instructed to respect the authority of the deputy sheriff to whom they were subordinate. Guardsmen were also given to understand that the task of policing the town of Homestead had been relinquished into the hands of deputy sheriffs and to the borough officers, the latter of whom make a total of sixty. Except on the call of the sheriff's representative the military in Homestead are to restrict their operations to looking after their own members, such for instance, as apprehending absconders from the ranks if any, and enforcing an order issued to-night prohibiting the national guard from entering saloons.

J. W. Bailey.

Congressman Bailey, of the Gainesville district, gave the members who are continually absent from their duties in the house of representatives a severe basting a few days ago. Mr. Bailey refused to accept pay for days he was absent from the house, and in the course of his speech said: "Members and senators are entitled to receive for their services $416 2-3 per month, and section 40 of chapter 4, provides that the secretary of the senate and the sergeant-at-arms of the house, respectively, shall deduct from the monthly payments of each member or delegate the amount of his salary for each day that he has been absent from the senate or house respectively, unless such member or delegate assigns as a reason for such absence the sickness of himself or some member of his family. * * * If a public servant is sick himself or any member of his family is sick, he may properly be excused without forfeiting his salary, but no man ought to be permitted to take the salary of a public office while he is giving his time and attention to private business. One man has drawn over $7,000 as a member of the fifty-second congress, and yet he has attended the sessions of the house but three times, and one of those was to vote against the resolution fixing a day to consider the silver bill. Another member has for some time been a railroad commissioner in one of the great states of this union at a salary of $10,000, and yet he has been drawing his pay as a member of congress though he has not been in Washington 30 days during our seven months session. These are specimen cases, but there are many others almost as bad, and it would seem about time that something should be done to correct a system under which such gross abuses are possible."—Abilene Sentinel.

Grape Culture.

E. W. KIRKPATRICK,

[Farm and Ranch.]

1. The grape is a universal plant, adapted in some variety to all soils and exposures. Wild grapes are a good criterion to determine soil and exposure.

2. Land should be prepared for grapes as for corn or cotton, and planted eight to ten feet apart each way. Plant any time from November to April.

3. The stake system is preferred on the coast and trellis in the interior.

4. In the stake system the vines should be stumped and closely pruned in cold weather. On trellis they should be left to trail several feet on the wire, with two closely pruned canes.

5. Æstivalis or Herbemont class seems to take the widest range in Texas, both for wine and market. The Vinifera, such as Malaga and Tokay, are well adapted to south and west Texas, and are the finest product of earth. The concord and other Labrusca are well adapted to the north and east.

6. Near the coast and on the western plains the Æstivalis and Vinifera seem almost free of disease and insect pests. The Bordeaux mixture is the best remedy.

7. The industry is in its infancy, but when developed will be remunerative.

8. Among the hundreds of varieties, new and old, in the south, the most popular are Herbemont, Lenoir, Tokay, Malaga, Farara, Hamburg, Salem and Niagara. The three important things in all kinds of planting are variety, planting and cultivating, and the greatest of these is cultivating.

What will it profit a man to know all about soil, climate, exposure, preparing, planting, training, distance, support, pruning, market, wine-making, disease, insects, remedy, preventive, variety, adaptation, locality, and not cultivate, not keep down the weeds, grass and bushes, and let fire, rabbits, stock and everything war on your plants? Not the want of knowledge, but the want of industry and attention prevents Texas from being a land of oil and wine.

Weavers Emphatic Denial.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 22.—Gen. Weaver, who is now here said to a reporter that there was absolutely no truth in the widespread report that he had in his possession a letter from Gen. Stephenson which if given to the public would prove very embarrasing to the democratic vice presidential candidate.

THE PEOPLE'S PARTY

VINCENNES, IND., July 21—The day of jubilee of the people's party yesterday was a success. Addresses were delivered by Hon. F. J. C. Robinson of the Indiana state grange Dr. C. A. Robinson, of the F. M. B. A. of Indiana; Hon. E. Argins and others. In the afternoon Gen. Weaver spoke two hours on the subject of finance, land and transportation. He declared that he was standing with both feet upon the Omana platform. Letters were read from Gen. Field of Virginia nominee for vice president and A. M. Barnett, candidate for governor of Illinois. A telegram was read from the silver leagues of Colorado and Nevada promising the electoral votes of those states to Weaver and Field. The following was adopted:

Resolved that we reject the Carnegie policy and denounce Pinkertonism; that we extend to organized labor at Homestead our heart felt sympathy in its present struggle.

Members of the executive committee present had a secret meeting which was attended by Weaver, Templeton, Robinson, Williams, Holcomb and other members. All the information given out was that with this meeting the campaign was formally opened and would be pushed all along the line.

Campaign in Hill.

HILLSBORO, Tex., July 22.—J. H. Walker of Robey, Texas, has decided to establish a third party paper at this point. It will be known as the Hill County Reformer, and the first issue will appear about Aug. 1. A large number of subscribers have already been booked. Mr. Walker's venture will have the full backing of his party in the county.

Chairman James DeMumber of the people's party executive committee for the tenth senatorial district, comprising the counties of Hill, Ellis and Johnson, has called the convention for the purpose of nominating a candidate for senator at Itasco, Aug. 6, 1892.

The democrats of the same district will meet at Alvarado, July 26, and nominate their candidate.

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY.

"Go with me tomorrow morning when the sun rises, and tell me on which it smiles the kindliest, on the graves of the blue or the graves of the gray. Come with me and listen to the birds and tell me whether they sing the sweeter over the blue or over the gray. Come look at the flowers which grow on the silent mound and tell me which breathes the most incense, those which cover the blue or those which shroud the gray. If then all nature teaches us such lessons of our unity and kinship, shall we not wipe out all difference and come together in a common brotherhood!" [Cheers and cries of "Yes! yes!"]

Democrats as such owe no allegiance to factions as such, and the promise is of a high old political time in Texas in this year of our Lord 1892. How the noble old rips and third party men must be enjoying the madness of democrats.—Ft. Worth Gazette.

REGNIER'S VICTIM.

Deceased Was a Pure and Virtuous Girl.—Regnier maintains Silence.

SHERMAN, TEX., July 21.—The body of Josephine Gremeau, the girl murdered by her grandfather, Albin Regnier was laid away at the West Side cemetery this afternoon. There was scarcely a dry eye in all the concourse when Rev. Mountcastle, the Methodist clergyman who officiated at the burial, consigned her body back to the dust of earth.

The inquest has been finished so far as the evidence is concerned. At the request of coroner Hinkle of the first Precinct a post mortem examination was made upon the body. This was to demonstrate to a certainty whether or not there was truth in the broadcast rumor that the unfortunate young lady was in a delicate condition. The examination set at naught all such reports. Dr. Lankford in his deposition said: "I found nothing to indicate that the deceased was other than a pure and virtuous girl."

Regnier still maintains his silence. He had a conversation with his son, Joe, a lad of 18, today. To all others he has the same reply, "I don't care to talk of the matter." Last night, however, he said to Deputy sheriff, Gene Andrews: "I made her kneel at my feet and told her for what I intended to kill her for and she asked me to shoot." This is quite at variance with the statement of Mrs Haskell, an eye witness, who before the coroner to-day said, as she said last night, to The News reporter, that the girl was pleading for mercy when she was killed.

Prayer At The Opening Of The People's National Convention At Omaha.

BY REV. BENJ. F. DIFFENBACHER.

Infinite and All Wise Father, thou art God. At thy command kingdoms rise and empires fall. Men are the instruments of thy hand. We thank thee for this day—for the present and nearing future, commemorative of divine impulse moving our fathers to improved relations for humanity and better conditions of national life. We thank Thee for the questioning doubt and blessed assurance for the calm and the storm; for the quiet and the strife that gave them the dawn and us the day.

We thank Thee for the parties that in the past have had their birth and accomplished destiny great and grand.

We rejoice that Thou in wisdom does ever build upon the dying old the better living new.

We thank Thee for this day—for converging forces from extended borders to this midway state and central city of imperial land, representative assembly, people, pulpit, press, with heart sur-charged with patriotic devotion to human interests.

Command, we beseech Thee, oh God of our fathers, the rich blessings of Thy love and royal benediction of Thy peace upon us—in council chamber, in convention hall! Baptize us with the spirit, with truth and righteousness to conceive possibilities and assume responsibilities, so that the stylus of future history may write the birthright of his day, the greatest, grandest, most glorious—for human progress—national liberty and Thee! Our Father, Eternal Son and everlasting Spirit, Amen.

She—"Don't you think woman can do a great deal to elevate the stage?" He—"Yes, she can lower her hat."—Life.

He—"Did you have a nice time on your camping party last summer?" She—I should say so. We had seven girls and seven men, and when we came home there were forty-nine engagements in the party."

HARRY TRACY AT WYLIE.

Captures That Lovely City

Harry Tracy, while on his way to Copeville to speak was was prevailed on by citizens of that city to stop and and address them on Tuesday, the 19th inst. We were not present but understand that he captured his audience by his eloquence and logic. We hereby append the following partial report from the Wylie Rustler A democrat paper.

"Hon. Harry Tracy, of Dallas, one of the shrewdest and best posted men in the peoples party, spoke to a fair sized audience at the arbor in this city Tuesday evening. It was not generally known that Mr. Tracy would speak until a very late hour the previous day, therefore the crowd was smaller than it would have been otherwise.

He was introduced by Mr. F. P. Skelton about 3 o'clock p. m. and spoke for thirty or forty minutes on things in general.

The Rustler will not attempt to give his speech in full—space not preventing—but only giving a few condensed facts of what he said.

He began by reading the three political platforms and commenting on them.

He said he had voted the democratic ticket for the past thirty years, but had learned something in the last four years. And that if you voted with the democratic party longer, you would send your wife and daughters to the cotton patch, and take your son from school.

He said no industry in America could pay 4 per cent. interest on money without retrograding the business; that money was now easy in New York at 3 per cent. and here in Texas dear at 15.

He said the civilized people preferred paper money, and that the Hottentots would take silver because it was heavier and more of it.

He said there were only $9.00 per capita in circulation today. But here comes a party that propose to increase the circulating medium to $50.00 per capita. At $50.00 per capita, said he, it would double twice the wages of every working man, and you could get 10 cents per pound for your cotton.

He said when all this was done and you went to town, selling your crop, you could go down into your jeans and find greenbacks instead of a barlow knife and a plug of tobacco as is now the case.

He said if the money—$50.00 per capita—was given it would give relief to all classes, but the agricultural class. And That money should be given in favor of the classes. He believes to do this, it should be done by putting up warehouses He said you could build the ware houses, buy the land and pay for it by taxation.

He said if ware houses were built you would not have to look to other countries for your money but look for it from the fields.

He said no man present would dispute anything he had said.

He said the democratic party would not reduce the tariff that they had lied about the free coinage of silver, and would lie about anything. He said you had not seen a democratic platform since the war, and if you would lay one of today and then down together, you would swear they wasn't any kin.

He said the I. & G. N., and Texas and Pacific R. R., were running Hogg for governor, and that the balance were running Clark for governor. "Who is running Nugent for governor?" was asked by a man in the audience. "People with patches on their pants." Was answered.

He also spoke about the government ownership of railroads.

He person ated no one, but dealt in facts. He is the best posted man and speaker the Rustler ever heard speak in defense of the third party. His speech was well received and frequently cheered by his people. He spoke for three hours."

People's Party Conventions.

AUSTIN, TEX., July 20.—The people's party held their senatorial, judicial and congressional convention here today, the first being participated in by Travis, Williamson, and Burnet counties, second by Travis and Williamson, and third by Travis, Williamson, Burnet, Hays, Bastrop, Lee and Caldwell. Washington and Burleson counties were not represented. The first and second conventions were presided over by C. J. Jackson of Williamson county with M. M. Williams of same county, Secretary, J. K. Lane of same and J. D. Hutton of Burnett were placed in nomination. On the third ballot, Hutton received the nomination.

In the judicial convention a committee of ten was appointed, to whom was delegated the whole matter of the nomination of county judge M. C. Granbury of Austin was nominated for district attorney. The congressional convention was presided over by J. B. Catman, candidate for representative from this county. Col. J. W. Jones, of Bastrop and J. M. Horner of Lockhart were put in nomination, but a statement being made that Jones would not accept, his name was withdrawn and he was elected by acclamation.

Tonight in the capitol grounds Cyclone Davis addressed quite a large gathering of People's partyites. Democrats and republicans. He made usual denunciations of practices of both parties and pleaded for principles of reform which he was advocating.

Ingersoll on Silver.

The republican papers frequently quote Col. Ingersoll's views on the tarift, but they never give circulation to his published opinions on the silver question. Here is what the colonel said recently:

"The republican party made a great mistake when it demonitized silver in 1873. I am a silver man. That is I want both metals used, and I believe in coining all the silver we dig in the United States. The question again is: Shall the organized few control the unorganized many? Shall a few bankers and a few financiers and a few speculators determine what shall be the money of the United States? and shall they have it in their power to demonetize silver and increase the value of gold 20 to 30 per cent more than they would have had to pay, provided they were allowed to pay in the same thing that was money when the debts were contracted? Now, we want a man as a candidate broad enough to understand these questions; and not only to understand them, but we want a man on the side of the people, who need somebody on their side."

Don't All Answer At Once.

We have two distinguished latter day democrats running for governor of Texas. Mr. Hogg apvocates the loaning of the childrens school money to railroads, and Mr. Clark advocates loaning it to the people on their lands. The latter we prefer, because land is the best security in the world, and the basis of all security. But, no matter about that. What we wish to know from our democratic friends who are supporting one or the other of these gentlemen is, how they can do so, and at the same time oppose the loaning of money on lands by the general government? If one is right the other is bound to be. Show us the line of distinction. The constitution of a state can not conflict with the constitution of the United States.—Jimplecute.

MEN WHO ARE TRUE.

BY J. A. JOLLY.

How sweet to gaze on a face that's bright,
That's brightened each day by a heart that's light,
With a heart that can love with the fulness of soul

Oh, give me the heart that can weep with the sad,
A heart to rejoice and laugh with the glad,
A heart that to vice was never a slave,
Such hearts in danger are always brave.

Oh, give me the man that visits the poor
And welcomes the friendless with open door,
Oh, give me the hand that sows good seed
By helping the orphan when in need.

Oh, give me the voice that is gentle and kind,
That never speaks words to rubble the mind.
Such voices as this has often been known
To soften the heart that was hard as a stone.

Oh, give me the man, though the poorest of earth,
That praises a friend alone for his worth.
I do not care for his worth in gold,
I speak of his worth in fulness of soul.

A VOICE FROM OREGON.

The Old State Bank Issue.

HARRISBURG, OREGON, July 12, '92.

Editor Democrat.

The people's party in Oregon elected eight representatives and two state senators carried Coos county by a good majority and elected several county officers in other counties, not so bad for the first battle. We are now marshalling our forces for the fall campaign and we feel confident we can give Weaver and Field the electorial vote of Oregon. If the democrats can offer the people nothing better than a revival of the old state banks they had better join the republicans and then the people's party will only have to dig one grave to bury these two agents of plutocracy in this fall. What the people demand is a full legal tender, absolute money issued by the government and loaned to them at a low rate of interest. Why do the democrats want the 10 per cent tax removed from the state bank issues? Do they expect to flood the country with this wild cat currency, thinking that will satisfy the people's demand for more money? Ah, we can see the thin coat of sugar on the pill, but we will not swallow it. We know the effect of that kind of medicine. It would poison the whole system. They know their national banking system is doomed as well as their rotten old party. "They see the hand writing on the wall" and they are put to their wits end to conjure up some new devise to further deceive and rob the people. They have played their last trump, but it will not take a trick. The enemy is getting scared and will soon be on the run; let us stampede them in November, and unborne generations will bless us for our patriotism and the name of the people's party will live forever. Fraternally yours,

W. H. SPAUGH.

Housekeeper—"Has any way been discovered to kill the pests that destroy carpets?" Great Scientist—"Yes, madam. Take up the carpets, hang them on a line and beat them with a stick." "Will that kill the insects?" "Yes, madam, if you hit them."—New York Weekly

If Democrats are turned loose at Houston, they can at least vote according to their judgement, for the best interests of Texas. They may be absolved for the time from party obligation, but nothing can relieve them from their obligation to the state.—Ft. Worth Gazette.

Boss or bolt, rule or ruin, seem to be the watch words of some democrats all over Texas. In view of what is now going on throughout the state, the Houston convention promises to be "an act of liberation"—absolving democrats from party fealty to any gubernatorial candidate in 1892.—Ft. Worth Gazette.

NUGENT is the man for governor.

Brawn and Brains make a good team.

WHEN will Reagan write another letter?

THE Democratic State Convention convenes at Houston next Tuesday.

HOGG will be nominated next Tuesday and then we will have a new lease of fun.

Hogg has the Clark forces rattled, but Nugent will soon rattle the Hogg forces.

THE party spoils machine does more to harm the laboring classes than all other machines combined.—Dallas News.

GREER county is over-run with the people's party, if we are to judge from the wails of the Mangum Star, a democratic paper of that county.

BOTH the old parties pander to popular prejudice and refuse to tackle anything that is dangerous. Party politics is little more than a cowardly greed.—Dallas News.

THE Dallas News proves its unselfishness in giving all sides of the political questions of the day, and the News is receiving, well deserved congratulations.

The Denton Monitor Talks Two Ways on the Same Subject.

Prepare to put away politics and pull for prosperity in the Lone Star State,—McKinney Examiner.

This time you are wrong Mr. Examiner. In part, of course we will pull together for the prosperity of Texas, but let the discussion of politics go on. Every man should elect to take some fair political paper, read and then discuss with his neighbor as to how things are going. The people are honest and patriotic and the mistakes they make is when they get hoo dooded and put on the wrong track, as in the case of the railroad commission being an issue in the present campaign for Governor.—Denton Monitor.

"It is time now for the people of Denton to let up on politics, and pull together in getting the East Line Ry., extended from McKinney to Denton."

Those who are interested in the present campaign should avoid heated discussions. Remember that the weather is hot and that the average politician cannot stand much abuse when his blood is already hot with the heat of old Sol.

We have noticed fellows who seem delighted to stand on the street corner and abuse "the other fellow." This is not courteous.

No matter to what party you belong, be conservative and pleasant in presenting your views and after the smoke of of battle will have cleared away the people will be prepared to march harmoniously together under the same flag.

DALLAS, TEX., July 25—Jack F. Sharpe, chairman of the democratic central committee of Dallas, and, until recently, a prominent young business man was arrested tonight on indictments charging him with perjury and arson. His bond was placed at $1,000 in one case and $1500 in the other. The accused furnished sureties and was released.

A Good Word for Nugent.

Judge Nugent, the nominee of the third party for the governor of the state of Texas, is spoken of on all sides as a man of fine education, excellent character and firt class ability. The lawyers of his old district say that no better district judge ever sat on the bench in Texas.—Houston Post.

THIRD PARTY GROWING RAPIDLY.

ABILENE, TEX., July 26,—Reports from eight counties in this section are to the effect that the third party movement is growing rapidly. A very conservative business man and a strong democrat gave it as his opinion that the state would be lost to the democracy if the party was as strong in other portions of the state as it is in this congressional district.

Colorado Silver League.

DENVER, Col., July 28.—The state convention of the silver league was called to order by secretary Wyncoop shortly before 11 o'clock. He said owing to the absence of the chairman of the convention and also chairman of the league, it devolved upon him to call the convention to order. Mr. C. R. Thompson was chosen temporary chairman. On being escorted to the platform, Mr. Thompson made a short speech. Delegate Walter said that as Gen. James B. Weaver, the people's party candidate, was in town, he moved a committee wait upon him and ask him to address the meeting. The motion prevailed and a committee was appointed which at once waited upon Gen. Weaver. He said his time was limited and he could not accept the invitation, but expressed himself heartily in accord with the convention for free silver. Several characteristic addresses were made.

A Great Political Force.

The people's party has held its convention and adjourned, and the gathering and its work are in a position to be weighed, and estimated. It must be admitted that the convention was a surprise in many respects. It was a far more numerous and representive gathering than was generally expected, and its work was accomplished with a degree of harmony and good feeling that could hardly have been anticipated from the heterogeneous character of the organizations represented. The factions and the jealousies that are usually bred under such conditions were almost completely absent, and this alone is sufficient to show that a great dominant purpose controlled the delegates and inspired their action. There is far more promise of permanence for the organization formed at St. Louis in February last than anyone credited it with at the time. It is useless longer to ridicule or belittle the movement; it must be reckoned with as one of the great political forces that will make themselves felt in the coming elections and in all probability in future elections.—St. Louis Republic, Dem.,

Bobby Watterson's Views.

But have we in reality two parties in this country, divided clearly by party lines into great masses of people who think one way, and great masses of people who think the other way; or have we rather the two sets of rival politicians masquerading respectively under the names of the democratic party and the republican party, while merely contending for the spoils? Has our modern and purely orthodox and national craze for money left us any political convictions of which we are not all afraid or half ashamed? Are those fossil remains, which we used to call party principles, living or dead or merely suspended, that neither party dares to go to the root of things; dares to call its soul its own, but that both prefer to dodge and hedge, content with the sheerest evasion, with mere sham and shadow, if they can only win the elections. I have sometimes thought so.

A Warning.

From an excellent letter from "Uncle Erby" we quote the following pathetic lines:

"Crying for bread! Shades of all departed saints! The wails and moans of innocent children renting the midnight air in this land of the free! Widows whose cheeks are pale and sunken, must be bathed in scalding tears caused by mans inhumanity. Every day a fine carriage drives along our streets. Every day a little grave is dug and an unknown waif, uncermoniously is silently laid away. No tears, no flowers, unknown! Starved to death! Frozen! O, appalling is it to think of it! In a land from where thousands are sent to civilize other people.

* * * Who cannot, with prophetic vision peer into the future and see the manacles of slavery, the land of servitude, and the wrecked lives of shame awaiting our sons and daughters?"

Collins Victory.

E. W. Kirkpatrick at the State Horticultural Society, Dallas Tex., July 20, 1892, took premiums as follows: Finest general collection of Texas grown fruits, and 15 other first premiums on fruits. Collin county could have swept about 200 premiums, had a few of our people joined in two or three days collecting specimens.

A grand opportunity is now offered us at Dallas Fair and from there to Chicago to attract the attention of the best people on earth and secure the development of our finest and most valuable resources. Let us call a public meeting, invite Mr. Huffman, the agent of the Fair, to address our people and go at once to collecting specimens for the great coming exhibitions.

WATSON, the brave people's party congressman from Georgia, offered a bill in the lower House last January to investigate the Pinkerton business. He was sneered at by democrats. Since the late blood shed at Homestead, Pa., the democrats are popping up on all sides in favor of such a bill. Prejudice and passion controls the American congress.

R. Q. Mills said in his speech at Celeste that free coinage of silver would not amount to anything. That it would put only a very small sum of money into circulation. If this is the case why has the democratic party been teaching the people in favor of free coinage of silver for years? Is it the mission of the G. O. P. to mislead the people and then turn around and denounce them as "durn fools."

Normal Notes.

Our normal has at last drawn to a close. After a most interesting, pleasant and enthusiastic session our labors are at last at an end. We have all enjoyed ourselves to the fullest extent and go away from McKinney with a kind feeling for her generous hospitality.

About fifty teachers have been in attendance and excellent work has been done.

Last Monday morning Mr. J. H. Hill was called to the chair and the following committee was appointed on resolutions: A. S. Noble, A. L. Elkins and Mrs. Borum.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Bailey was called to the chair and the committee on resolutions, through its chairman, Mr. Noble, reported the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we recognize in our conductor, Mr. J. B. Dodson, a ripe scholar, a genial gentleman and an efficient conductor of the Normal Institute, and that we extend to him our heartfelt gratitude for his earnest efforts for our advancement and social development.

2. That to Messrs. Hudgins and Love, we feel the deepest obligation for their untiring work, both in class recitation and private instruction; and that by their modest mien, they have gained our admiration and a lasting place in our memories.

3. That we, as fellow teachers, do appreciate the manner in which each individual member has conducted him or herself, and that we will go away with kind remembrances of pleasant associations and a high regard for the superior ability of all concerned.

4. That we extend our sincere thanks to those people of McKinney, who have, in any way tendered us courtesies during our stay here.

5. That we extend our appreciation to those business men of McKinney who have rendered pecuniary assistance to the support of our normal.

6. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the McKinney papers and the papers of the county with the request that they publish the same.

Com. on Reso. { A. L. ELKINS, A. S. NOBLE, MRS. BORUM.

And thus closed the normal. We now go home feeling good, but we will feel better when we hear from our certificates.

COLLIN COUNTY ALLIANCE AT COPEVILLE.

The Collin county alliance convened at Copeville promptly on Wednesday, the 20th inst., as per announcement, with a large delegation present.

The business of the body was rapidly disposed of without any trouble. R. S. Sneed, of Willow Springs, was chosen president for the ensuing year, and M. N. Stroup of Verona was unanimously chosen as vice president. Miss Spivey of Maxwell was elected secretary.

J. C. Rhodes addressed the meeting and his remarks was well received.

The report was circulated since the meeting that Plano and the ex-confederate picnic was boy cotted by a resolution which is false to the extreme. The alliance neither uttered a word or adopted a line in regard to the same. The only mention made of re-unions was made by speaker Rhodes, who thought that re-unions by either the blue or the gray was only calculated to stir up strife among the people. His utterance, of course, had no connection with the alliance.

On Wednesday the good people of Copeville community spread an abundance of edibles on the grounds and hundreds of grateful people partook of the hospitality.

After dinner Harry Tracy was introduced to the large audience which assembled in the grove, who made one of his telling speeches. He had to leave just after his speech on the east bound train. After Tracy's speech Mr. Yoakum a lawyer and democrat candidate for state senator, was allowed one hour and thirty minutes to speak in defense of his party.

His farmer audience seemed very free in putting very tough questions to him regarding Cleveland and his administration, which Mr. Yokum found very hard to defend. J. C. Rhodes replied to Mr. Yokum in a manner that pleased the people's party gentlemen present who were largely in the majority.

The Collin County Alliance adjourned on Thursday evening after selecting Verona, 12 miles east of McKinney, as the place for the next meeting. A resolution was passed by the alliance extending the heartfelt gratitude of the delegates to the people of Copeville and vicinity, for their untiring and successful efforts in making their stay pleasant to the utmost.

In Earnest.

A gentleman writing from Wylie says:

"Push the good begun work to the last day in the evening. Let us not give back nor turn our backs to the enemy, but meet him at all times and places with our breast to the storm of abuse and ridicule for eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. Let us restore the great question of money back to the people through a well regulated governmental system to whom it belongs. Let us say that there shall not exist another interest bearing U. S. bond in this government. Let us rise up and demand that they be paid at once and thus stop this leach sucking double monster, the basis of all our national banks. Then and not until then will we be able to control the finances of this government. Thine for the right."

Don't wait for each other but go to work and secure one subscriber for the DEMOCCAT.

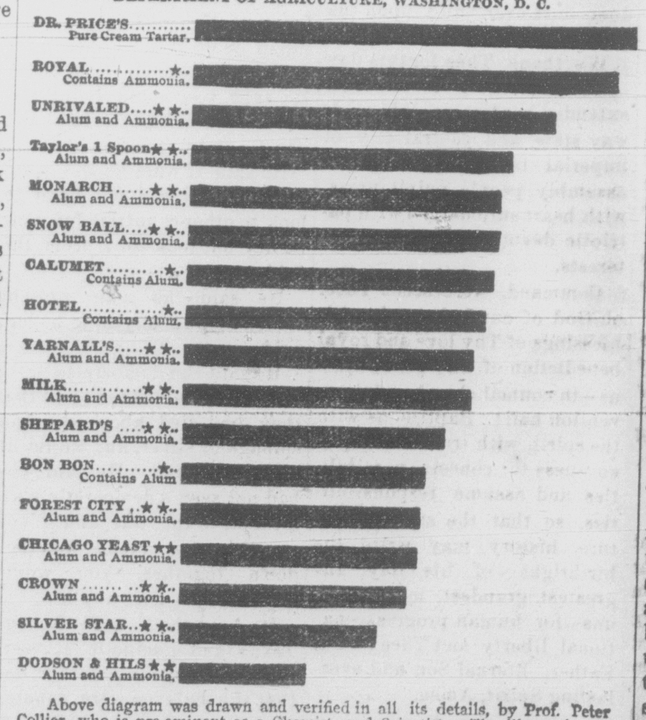
Testing the Baking Powders.

Comparative Worth Illustrated,

BY PROF. PETER COLLIER, LATE CHEMIST IN CHIEF OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, WASHINGTON, D. C.



Above diagram was drawn and verified in all its details, by Prof. Peter Collier, who is pre-eminent as a Chemist, and Scientist. The illustration is made in accordance with his chemical tests of each brand enumerated.

The Carbonic acid gas was calculated to get the leavening strength and the quantative analysis to ascertain the comparative wholesomeness, purity, and general usefulness of the leading Powders. The result of Prof. Collier's examination and test, reveals the fact, that, with but one exception, every brand tested contained either Ammonia or Alum, and a number both.

Not one woman in ten thousand would use an Ammonia or Alum Baking Powder if she knew it. Such Powders not only undermine the health, but ammonia imparts a sallow or blotched complexion.

NOTE.—Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, as shown by Prof. Collier's examinations, is the only pure Cream Tartar Powder found free from adulteration and the highest in strength. All authorities report Dr. Price's free from Ammonia, Alum, Lime, or any other adulterant. The purity of this ideal Powder has never been questioned.

★ Indicates the Powder containing either Ammonia or Alum.

★★ Indicates the Powder containing both Ammonia and Alum.

While the diagram shows some of these Ammonia or Alum Powders to be of [illegible] value. All Ammonia or Alum powders should be avoided as dangerous, no matter [illegible] their strength.

Mr. O. Burk and Mr. John Ingram had a fight last Sunday evening. No serious damage done.

W. B. Chapman, the Hogg and anti people's party champion of Rheas Mill, was in the city yesterday.

Now is the time to advertise in the colums of the DEMOCRAT, while its subscription list is growing fast.

Horse racing was indulged in at the fair grounds last Saturday. We understand that Ben Hill scored a victory.

Dan Biggs will start up a grocery near Allen's meat market about the first of August next.

The crops in Collin county are immense. We repeat that she is the banner agricultural county in the state.

The encampment at Boggy Prairie, in Fannin county, was a grand affair. The people's party crowd at that place was very large.

We hope that our friends will present our claims in their club meeting and urge every member to take the DEMOCRAT at least six months.

Go to work for the DEMOCRAT and help to boost our subscription list. Read it and pass it to your good neighbors.

We had the pleasure of staying with our friend J. B. Marshall, of Prairie Grove, one night last week.

The Plano Star has passed into the hands of Messrs. Purdy & Love, who, no doubt will manage the paper in an able manner.

Geo. A. Wilson has returned from a trip to northwest Texas where he had an enjoyable time. He says he feels 50 per cent better.

Dr. T. C. Reedy, of Bonham, was in the city this week. He will be here again on Monday and Tuesday, the 8th and 9th of August next.

J. P. Dowell gave a free baloon ascension last Tuesday. The baloon was in the shape of a big hog and attracted considerable attention.

Will Parker our former expert typo has been enjoying several holidays in southeast Collin. He returned home last Tuesday.

An excellent letter was received from Nevada yesterday which is unavoidably crowded out. We hope its author will remember us in the future.

A little boy whose name we failed to learn was thrown from a wagon last Saturday west of McKinney and has since died from injuries received.

Mr. E. M. Barkley of the firm of Barkley, Harris & Rhea, in company with his lady left this week for New York, where he will make a large purchase of goods.

Sarah Mesquito of Farmersville charged with the murder of her mexican husband a few weeks ago was brought into court yesterday when the case was continued to the next term. Her bond was placed at $3000

A fist fight was narrowly escaped last Saturday by two fellows while talking politics. If you cannot talk politics without getting mad, why just step aside and let the cool headed fellow have a chance.

The picnic at Elm Grove last Saturday was well attended. J. C. Rhodes and Mr. Yokum of Greenville engaged in a joint discussion, resulting in a victory for the people's party.

Capt. James H. Jenkins kindly tenders the use of an elegant grove just south of McKinney, to the Alliance for picnic purposes. There is a stand and seats already prepared on said grounds.

Post Master General Wanamaker recommends that signs be put up in front of post offices for the benefit of the traveling public. He recomends this style for a sign: "McKinney postoffice McKinney Texas." There should be a sign in front of our post office.

The evidence in the Maynard murder trial this week should teach an important lesson—that of avoiding strong drink. By the use of strong drink Mose Maynard lies in a premature grave, while his father serves a term of 14 years in the penitentiary and two families are doomed to a life of sorrow.

Messrs. Owen & Armstrong Bros., of Dallas have established a lumber yard on west Louisiana street, just west of the public square. We learn that these gentlemen intend to do a driving business. They will handle all kinds of building material.

George Maynard, charged with the murder of his son recently at Weston was arraigned before Judge Muse last Wednesday for trial. After many witnesses had been examined the defendant offered a plea of guilty of murder in the second degree. This was accepted by the court and the jury returned bringing in a verdict of 14 years in the penitentiary.

The gentleman who vainly imagines that he can beat Esq. L. L. Miller for Justice of Precinct No. 2, had better disabuse his mind of such an absurdity. Esq. Miller has given satisfaction; is an able and courteous gentleman, whom his costituency can support with pride.

The political fun will not end with the primaries. It ends next November.

The candidates held forth at the court-house last night. By invitation E. W. Kirkpatrick represented the people's party.

The Plano confederate re-union is in progress to-day. Many of our citizens are in attendance.

To the generous public: Watermelons and fruit thankfully received at this office.

A. W. Knighton would not sign the agreement. He thought candidates had no right to dictate to the people.

If Jennings was compelled to get his information from the recent national democrat platform, he certainly would be puzzled, but owing to the fact that he is with the people's party, he is for "free and unlimited coinage" of the white metal with out any twisting of facts.

Some of the candidates before the primary are signing agreements to let the man who gets the plurality vote in the democratic primary next Saturday have the nomination. The executive committee ruled that if no candidate gets a majority vote, the contest is to be decided in the convention. This was done to keep some gentlemen from getting the nomination by a plurality vote.

We suppose that they have concluded the danger period has passed.

Next Saturday primary elections will be held in Collin county to nominate delegates to the Houston convention and also nominate county officers. It is to be hoped democrats can meet and make their selections without the senseless wrangle now so common in similar gatherings. To read the accounts given of county conventions is enough to disgust sensible people and make them wish for a discontinuance of party organization.—McKinney Enquirer.

FELL DEAD.

These words are very familiar to our readers, as not a day passes without the report of the sudden death of some prominent citizen. The explanation is "Heart Disease." Therefore beware if you have any of the following symptoms: Short Breath, Pain in Side, Smothering Spells, Swollen Angles, Asthmatic Breathing, Weak and Hungry Spells, tenderness in shoulder or arm, fluttering of heart or irregular pulse. These symptoms mean heart disease. The most reliable remedy is Dr. Miles' new heart cure, which has saved thousands of lives. Book of testimonials free at Smith Bros.' drug store, who also sells the new heart cure. no. 1.

People's Party Convention.

MCKINNEY, Tex., July 12, '92.

By recommendation of the executive committee of the people's party of Collin county which convened in McKinney, on Saturday, July 9th, and by virtue of authority vested in me, as chairman of the executive committee of the people's party of Collin county, I hereby call on the chairman of each justice precinct to call a primary convention of his respective district on Saturday, August 20th, for the purpose of nominating precinct tickets, if deemed necessary, and to select delegates to the county nominating convention to be held in the city of McKinney, on Saturday, August 27th, 1892. The basis of representation will be one delegate to every fifty votes as cast in the state election two years ago. The following is the vote of each justice precincts taken from the records:

Don't Take Our Word,

But call your druggist to one side and ask him privately which of all the remedies advertised to cure Rheumatism he would recommend. If he is posted, and conscientious, he will tell you that Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy is the only one that offers a reward of $500 for a case it will not cure, and for ordinary cases the money is returned when one bottle does not cure. With sensible people this is the strongest recommendation. Price $5 per bottle. Sent to any address prepaid on receipt of price, Drummond Medicine Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane, New York. Agents wanted.

Senatorial Convention.

The senatorial convention of the people's party of Hunt and Collin counties' will convene in the city of Farmersville on Friday Aug. 12th, to nominate a candidate for state senator. Delegates will please take notice.

FAIL TO DO OUR DUTY.

Everybody has at times failed to do their duty towards themselves. Hundreds of lady readers suffer from sick headache, nervousness, sleeplessness and female troubles. Let them follow the example of Mrs. H. Herbechter, Stevens Point, Wis., who for five years suffered greatly from nervous prostration and sleeplessness, tried physicians and different medicines without success. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' nervine caused sound sleep every night and she is feeling like a new person. Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, Laramie City, Wyoming, who tried all other remedies, declares that after three week's use of the nervine for headache, nervous prostration, etc., she was entirely relieved. Sold by Smith Bros. Trial bottle free. no. 1.

Marriage Bells.

The following marriage licenses have been issued by county clerk Keen, since our last report:

John H. Baker and Minnie E. Porter, David Wilson and Callie Miller, J. H. Williams and Nannie Smith, Watson Davis and Sophia B. Beckham, B. F. Althy and B. Beavers, Mark Horton and Louisa Rickiner.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumblihg sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We offer One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (cased by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh cure. Send for circulars, free.

Female Weakness Positive Cure

TO THE EDITOR:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for he thousand and one ills which arise from deranged female organs. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any lady if they will send their Express and P. O. address. Yours respectfully, DR. A. C. MARCHISI, Utica, N. Y.

FROM WYLIE.

A people's party club was organized at Wylie last Saturday by the election of A. W. McDonald, president, and W. A. Hicks secretary. Twenty eight names were enrolled. Our informant writes that many more will join and many who will not join will vote the ticket. He further writes that all people party speakers do not engage in abusing the opposition, that such proceedure only tends to drive good men into silence. He also says that prospects are good for the Wylie box to go in favor of the people's party ticket.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

"Cyclone" Jim Davis.

J. H. Davis of Sulphur Springs will speak in defense of the people's party at Nevada, Collin county, on Monday, August 1, next at one o'clock p. m.

He will give a fair division of time to the opposition. "Cyclone" Jim Davis has won a national reputation as a debater and orator. His logic cannot be surpassed while his delivery is excellent. Go and her him whether you agree with him or not, you will not regret it.

It is often heard asserted by some of the Hogg speakers that a certain legislator a few years ago took the train in the wrong direction while attempting to go to Austin. It is also claimed, especially by Clark democrats, that it would have been better had the majority of the last legislature took the wrong direction and never returned.

People's Party Precinct Convention.

ANNA, Tex., July 25, '92.

By authority in me vested, as chairman of the people's party of justice precinct No. 3, of Collin county, Texas, I hereby call on the clubs of said precinct, and all the voters who indorse the people's party to meet in Anna on Saturday, August 20th, 1892, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a precinct ticket: constable, justice of the peace and commissioner. The office seeks the man. Solicit names to put before the convention for the different offices. The primary will select 15 delegates to the county nominating convention to be held in the city of McKinney, on Saturday, August 27th, 1892.

IF YOUR BACK ACHES,
Or you are all worn out, really good for nothing, it is general debility. Try BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It will cure you, cleanse your liver, and give a good appetite.

A Cure For Twenty Cents.

Any remedy sold at one dollar a bottle which claims to cure Rheumatism, is simply an imposition for when all expenses are deducted it leaves not more than twenty cents to represent the medicine. Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy, which is performing such wonderful cures that it is being prescribed by the medical faculty everywhere, is compounded at great expense from rare drugs, and cannot be sold for less than Five Dollars a bottle. But it always cures. Sent prepaid to any address on receipt of price. Drummond Medicine Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane, New York. Agents wanted.

THIS preparation, without injury, removes Freckles, Liver-Moles, Pimples, Black-Heads, Sunburn and Tan. A few applications will render the most stubbornly red skin soft, smooth and white. Viola Cream is not a paint or powder to cover defects, but a remedy to cure. It is superior to all other preparations, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction. For sale by druggists or mailed for 50 cents. Prepared by SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY. A marvelous cure for catarrh, diphtheria, canker mouth and headache. With each bottle there is an ingeninasal injector for the more successful treatment of those complaints without extra charge. Price 50c. Sold by R. E. Bristol.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure

This is beyond question the most successful cough medicine we have ever sold, a few doses invariably cure the worst case of cough, croup and bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10c, 50c and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by R. E. Bristol.

Answer This Question.

Why do so many people we see around us seem to prefer to suffer and be made miserable by indigestion, constipation, dizziness los of appetite, coming up of the blood, yellow skin, when for 75c. we will sell them Shiloh's Vitalizer, guaranteed to cure them. Sold by R. E. Bristol.

On What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shilo's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest use Shilo's Porous Plaster. Sold by R. E. Bristol.

The firm of Asbury & Padgitt has dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be conducted by J. W. Asbury, who will collect all accounts and pay all indebtedness of the firm.

PEOPLE'S PARTY PLATFORMS.

National Platform.

Finance—We demand a national currency, safe, sound and flexible, issued by the genera government only, full legal tender for all debts, public and private, and that without the use of banking corporations, just, equitable and efficient distribution direct to the people at a tax not to exceed 2 per cent. per annum to be provided as set forth in the subtreasury plan of the farmer's alliance, or some better system, also by payments in discharge of its obligations for public improvements.

A. We demand free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1.

B. We demand the amount of the circulating medium be speedily increased to not less than $50 per capita.

C. We demand a graduated income tax.

D. We believe the money of the country should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people, and hence demand all state and national revenues shall be limited to the necessary expense of government economically and honestly administered.

E. We demand postal savings banks be established by the government for the safe deposit of the earnings of the people and to facilitate exchange. Transportation being means of exchange and a public necessity, the government should own and operate the railroads in the interest of the people. The telegraph and telephone, like the postoffice system, being necessary for the transmission of news should be owned and operated by the government in the interest of the people.

LAND.

Land including all natural sources of wealth is the heritage of the people and should not be monopolized for speculative purposes and alien ownership of land should be prohibited. All the lands held by railroads and other corporations in excess of their actual needs and all lands now owned by aliens should be reclaimed by the government and held for actual settlers only.

STATE PLATFORM.

Section 1. All the public lands of Texas remaining and that can be recovered should be reserved as homesteads for actual settlers. All lands heretofore granted to individuals or corporations in which the grantees have not complied with the conditions of the grant should be forfeited to the state for homestead purposes, no alien ownership of lands should be allowed in Texas; corporations shall not be allowed to own more land than they actually use in the prosecution of their business.

Sec. 2. We favor an effective system of public schools for six months in the year for all children between the ages of 6 and 20. We demand the adoption of a uniform series of text-books for the public schools of this state and that they be published at the expense of the state, which shall be furnished to the children in the schools at cost.

Sec. 3. We demand an amendment to our state constitution authorizing the loaning of our permanent school fund not otherwise invested upon lands of the people of this state at a low rate of interest with proper limitations upon the quantity of land and the amount of money.

Sec. 4. We demand reformation in the punishment of convicts that convict labor be taken out of competition with citizen labor; that convicts be given intellectual and moral instructions, and that the earnings of the convict, above the expense of keeping, shall go to his family.

Sec. 5. We demand that railroads be compelled to pay their employes in the lawful money of the country, and in case of discharge then they be paid at the nearest station immediately upon their discharge.

Sec. 6. We demand fair elections and an honest count of the votes, under either the Australian or some similar system of voting.

Sec. 7. We favor a railway commission with power to fix and maintain rates that will insure equal and exact justice to the people and the railways. The commission to be composed of three qualified citizens of the state to be elected by a direct vote of the people. But we regard government ownership as the ultimate solution of the railroad problem in the limits of the state.

Sc. 8. We demand an efficient lien law, that will protect the artisan, mechanic, laborer and material men.

Sec. 9. We demand that a law be passed declaring eight hours to be a legal day's work, where it is not otherwise provided by contract.

10. We demand that the maximum salaries of county officers shall not exceed $2000 per annum, after all expenses of any such office have been paid, and that surplus in excess of such salary and expenses shall be paid into and become a part of the ayailable public school fund of such county and that said excess be prorated in such counties.

11. We demand the establishment of the state bureau of labor. We favor the creation of a state board of arbitration to adjust all differences between corporation and employes.

12. We demand that commissioner's courts be not allowed to contract a debt against a county for more than $5,000, unless the same be ordered by a majority vote of the county.

13. We favor such a change in the constitution as shall prohibit national bankers and members of railway, telegraph and telephone companies and their attorneys, or who shall have held such positions within two years prior to an election, from holding any legislative or judicial office within this state.

Clark on Cleveland.

Judge C.—I oppose it. He is not my sort of a democrat. I don't like a democrat when he is bigger than his party. Mr. Cleveland's opportunity is gone, and there is not much use in trying to galvanize him into life. On going ito office he demoralized his party in the hour of victory, snubbed its sages and leaders, attacked its financial position on the silver question in the interest of eastern money bags, embraced the doctrines of the mugwumps and left the augean stables as full of republicans as he found them. He was elected on the cry that we wanted a sight at the books, and then kept the books chiefly in their own hands. A man who thinks this government ought to be run under the rules of the civil service has not sufficient sense to appreciate the policy and institutions of his country, and needs a rest. I hope he is enjoying his and I would dislike to see him again annoyed with official cares. He is a demagogue and a charaltan and the sooner the party ceases to discuss him the better for the party. That is my opinion of Mr. Cleveland. Anything more?

R.—No, I believe that is enough. At least we will rest awhile here.—In Dallas News.

HOT AS THE HEREAFTER.

CINCINNATI, O., July 24.—This has been the hottest day known in Cincinnati for five years according to the statement of the weather bureau here and within a few degrees of the hottest temperature in fifteen years. The maximum temperature was 98 degrees, while in the city it ranged from 101 to 104 degrees. In spite of the heat only one case of prostration is reported.

Col. Polk Pleading.

"For twenty-five years I have been in public life. I never found myself fighting in the front rank of God's noblemen until I struck the farmer's alliance. Let us stand by our principles until the last man falls in the fight, and then volunteers will come up and take our places. Men, citizens, farmers, stand together for every principle of our organization, and a glorious triumph awaits us. They told us that there would be a division in the ranks at the polls. They who proclaim division did not know us. There is no division. We do not know what they are, thank God, and in that spirit we will proclaim and fight for the triumph of our principles.—Col. L. L. Polk, not long before his death.
